

ETHICAL CODE OF CONDUCT

The maintenance of high standards of personal behaviour and appearance is essential to the preservation of Adventist Singles Network, and its approval by the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Those who join the organisation do so by the process of self selection in a decision to join a special environment of Christian fellowship. Because this is a special environment, it is important that all who join do so with a clear and shared understanding of what the standards are. By applying for membership in Adventist Singles Ministries, a person signifies his/her willingness to live in accordance with the following principles:

1. Abide by the standards of Christian living taught by the Seventh-day Adventist Church. This includes the observance of high principles of honour, integrity and morality.
2. Respect personal rights, property rights, and the laws of the country. This includes graciousness and consideration for one another.
3. Observe standards of taste and decency. This includes refraining from behaviour that would embarrass those around him/her, or bring reproach upon the name of the organisation.
4. Observe standards of dress and grooming. This includes being well groomed, clean and modest.
